Snow falling across parts of England bringing some disruption Monday afternoon.

What to expect

- Some roads and railways likely to be affected with longer journey times by road, bus and train services

Further details

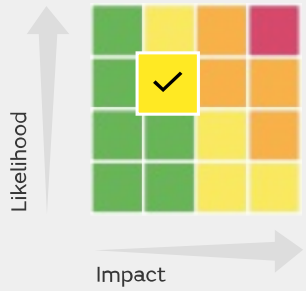
Snow is now falling across parts of north Midlands and the south Pennines and this area of snow is expected to move eastwards through the afternoon, clearing to the east on Monday evening.

Snow is expected to fall down to low levels at times but most accumulations should be above 100 m where 1-3 cm is possible in places.

Not all areas will see snow falling through this zone.



Medium likelihood of low impacts
